SINGAPORE: Eight English teachers have been awarded the Inspiring Teacher of English Award this year.

Four of the award winners were teachers from primary schools and four were from secondary schools.

Winners from the primary school category were Ms Pamela Kiew Hui Li of Bukit View Primary School, Mr Edwin Tan Boon Hock of First Toa Payoh Primary School, Mr Julian Victor of Rivervale Primary School and Ms Gladys Ng Wai Heng of River Valley Primary School.

From the secondary schools, the winners were Ms Suzaina Koh Nasir of Assumption Pathway School, Mrs Lee Poh Lin of Montfort Secondary School, Ms Anna Mathew of Si Ling Secondary School and Ms Shirley Teo-Pang Kim Hiang of Teck Whye Secondary School.

The winners received a trophy, certificate and cash award from Minister of State for Defence and Education Mr Lawrence Wong at a ceremony on Tuesday evening.

The Inspiring Teacher of English Award, now in its fourth year, is jointly presented by The Straits Times and the Speak Good English Movement. It is supported by the Ministry of Education (MOE) and honours exceptional teachers of the English language, English literature and General Paper subjects.
